How to complete the transfer form for a non-market transactions when transferring securities in a listed or unlisted company

1. Stamp duty

Transfers of securities that are listed and quoted on an Australian Stock Exchange are exempt from stamp duty. However, Stamp Duty is payable on all other securities by the buyer of the shares and is based on the amount of consideration (refer 8). The stamp duty is calculated at the rate applicable to the state in which the company the securities are held is incorporated. If the company is incorporated outside Australia, the state or territory in which the principal register is located determines the state or territory in which the duty is payable. Transfers must be submitted to the respective State or Territory Stamp Duty office for assessment and payment of any applicable duty.

2. Full name of company or corporation

The full name of the company or corporation in which securities are held.

3. State of incorporation
